DEAF SPORTS AUSTRALIA (DSA) CODES OF BEHAVIOUR

The following specific list highlights the codes of behaviour that must be adhered to by DSA members, players, coaches and managers and other DSA officials who are appointed/selected to represent DSA at National and International events.

Note: DSA members include:

- National Deaf Sport Organisations / Committee's and their members
- State Deaf Sport Organisations / committee's and their members
- Associate members

In addition there is a Code of Behaviour for spectators who are attending a DSA sanctioned event.

Codes of Behaviour listed below:

- Members page 3
- Officials page 4
- Team Administration page 5
- Spectators page 6
- Players page 7
- Coaches page 8
- Selectors page 9

Please note a conflict of interest is clarified as “a situation that has the potential to undermine the impartiality of a person because of the possibility of a clash between the person's self-interest and professional interest or public interest”.

Generally, a conflict of interest may occur if an interest or activity influences the ability of a person to exercise objectivity or impairs their ability to perform their duties.

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

(This covers Coaches appointed by DSA for events sanctioned, approved or controlled by DSA)

The coach's primary role is to facilitate the process of individual development through achievement of athletic potential. This role accepts the athletes' long term interest as of greater importance than short-term athletic considerations. To fulfill this role the coach must behave in an ethical manner respecting the following points:

1. To agree to respect the basic human rights, that is the equal rights of each athlete under control with no discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, colour, language, religion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, birth or other status.
2. To agree to respect the dignity and recognize the contribution of each individual.
3. To ensure that the practical environment is safe and appropriate; this appropriateness will take into consideration the age, maturity and skill level of the athlete.
4. To agree to ensure that all equipment used in the activities, are safe for the users and that the supervision provided for these activities within each session is adequate.
5. To agree to plan sessions adequately and activities within, by using appropriate teaching progressions so as to reduce the risk of possible injury.
6. To agree to identify and to evaluate athletes with injuries and incapacities so as the workload and performance expectations are modified accordingly.
7. To agree to warn all athletes under control of the inherent risks of the sport/individual events with continual reinforcement being ongoing so as each athlete appreciates those risks.
8. To agree to evaluate the skill level and experience of each athlete in the group so as mismatching of athletes can be kept to a minimum.
9. To agree to advise all athletes under control the rules of the events so as the athletes respect these rules and the spirit of the rules as they are intended.
10. To agree to respect the image of the coach and to continuously maintain the highest standards of personal conduct reflected in both the manner of appearance and behaviour.
11. To agree not to smoke whilst coaching, not consume alcoholic beverages so soon before coaching that:
 - a. The smell of alcohol is still obvious.
 - b. It affects the competence to coach.
12. To agree that the authority to discipline athletes under control extends only to minor infractions (i.e. attentiveness) and that any serious disciplinary breach must be referred to DSA Management for their attention.
13. To agree to abide by the general rules of DSA constitution or its approved representative so as not to bring DSA into disrepute.
14. To agree to abide by the general rules outlined in the DSA contract.
15. To observe all written codes of behaviours as prescribed and produced by DSA.
16. To be aware, understand and follow all protective measures as outlined in the policy.

SELECTORS CODE OF CONDUCT

DSA's appointed selectors' primary role is to facilitate, monitor, view and process players ensuring the best possible group of players are selected to represent DSA.

To fulfill this role the selector must behave in a professional and ethical manner respecting the following points:

1. To perform the role of selector at all times aiming to select the best possible players available.
2. To agree not to smoke, nor consume alcoholic beverages in the public gaze whilst performing selector duties, such duties are to be determined by the Convenor.
3. To agree to respect the image of the selector and to continually maintain the highest standards of personal conduct reflected in both the manner of appearance and behaviour.
4. To agree that any actual or perceived conflict of interest of a selector means that such selector will withdraw from the discussion where such actual or perceived conflict of interest exists. The selector must declare their actual or perceived conflict at the commencement of the selection process.
5. To agree to respect the basic human rights that is the equal rights of each athlete with no discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, colour, language, religion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, birth or other status.
6. To agree to abide by the general rules of the DSA constitution and policies so as not to bring DSA into disrepute.
7. To observe all written codes of behaviour as prescribed by DSA.
8. No selector, other than the Convenor is to make any public comment about the selection process or team/squad make up.
